TOLLS REPEAL BILL READY FOR WILSON'S SIGNATURE

Long and Bitter Fight in Congress Comes to End in the House.

AMENDMENT BY SIMMONS AND NORRIS IS O. K.'D

Flashes of Heat Characterize the Debate.

UNDERWOOD IS BITTER

After Brief Debate, House Accepts by Vote of 216 to 71 the Amendment Specifically Reserving All Treaty Rights.

Washington, June 12.—Only President Wilson's signature is necessary to repeal the clause of the Panama Canal Tolls act exempting American coastwise shipping from tolls. The long and bitter fight in Congress came to an end today when the House, after brief debate and without the formality of a conference, accepted by a vote of 216 to 71 the Senate amendment specifically reserving all rights the United States may have under the Hay Pauncefote treaty or otherwise.

The President is expected to sign the measure Monday. Three months ago he addressed the House and Senate in joint session, urgently asking for repeal of the exemption clause that the Nation might keep its treaty obligations. Speaker Clark was out of the city today, but he and Vice President Marshall will attach their signatures tomorrow and send the bill to the White House.

Before ending the contest by concurring in the Senate amendment, the House voted down, 174 to 108, a proposal advanced by Representative Moss, of West Virginia, to attach to the repeal a flat declaration of the right of the United States to exempt its vessels from tolls and of the sovereignty of the United States over the Canal Zone.

Flashes of Heat.

There were flashes of heat today in the debate which characterized the original consideration of the measure. Representative Underwood, the Democratic leader, although voting for the Senate amendment, said that Congress should never have made this "un-American surrender," and called the amendment "ineffective and negative."

Republican Leader Mann, who had vigorously opposed repeal, supported the amendment, declaring it left the entire question of the rights of this country to be determined in the future.

Representative Glass, of Virginia, attacked the Democratic leaders who opposed the measure. He denounced the "outrageous assaults made on the President," by the Republicans and expressed indignation "at the leaders of the Democratic side who have aspersed their own colleagues because they would not follow them into the camp of the Republican party in advocacy of a Republican doctrine."

With Republicans Against Wilson.

"Mr. Speaker," he added, "I think you will search the historical record of this country in vain to find such a spectacle as we have found here in this Congress—the leaders of the Democratic party deserting their party and standing shoulder to shoulder with Republican leaders against a Democratic President."

Twenty Democratic members voted against the motion to concur in the Senate amendment. They were: Brickson, Broussard, Conry, Deitrick, Donohoe, Driscoll, Dupre, Estopinal, Fitzgerald, Gallivan, Harrison, Kitchin, Lee, of Pennsylvania; Mitchell, O'Leary, O'Shaughnessy, Patten, of New York; Phelan, Raker and Reilly, of Connecticut.

Thirty-seven Republicans and three Progressives joined the Democrats in support of the motion. They were:

Republicans—Bartholdt, Barton, Britten, Burke, of South Dakota; Butler, Davis, Dillon, Esch, Fear, Gardner, Gillett, Good, Green, of Iowa; Greene, of Vermont; Hamilton, of Michigan; Hamilton, of New York; Houghen, Helgesen, Humphrey, of Washington; Johnson, of Washington; Kinkaid, of Nebraska; LaFollette, Lenroot, McKenzie, Madden, Mann, Morgan, of Oklahoma; Nelson, Platt, Plumey, Prouty, Slemp, S. W. Smith, of Michigan; Steenerson, Stevens, of Minnesota; Sutherland and Volstead.

Progressives—Lindbergh, Rupley and Thomson, of Illinois, voted for the motion.

LIGHT RAIN LAST NIGHT.

Showers Came 24 Hours Ahead of Observer Felger's Forecast.

Anticipating Observer Felger's forecast by just 24 hours, there were local thunder showers late yesterday afternoon and last night, which came as a great relief from the hot, sultry weather of the last two days. There was a brilliant electrical display in Wilmington, but no severe thunder. The rain came gently, a regular cotton shower as the farmers would say. In the early night it was sultry and oppressive, and it was not until early this morning that the atmosphere was cooled off to any extent.

"The hottest ever," was the expression heard on every hand yesterday, but the official record showed that it was just half a degree cooler than on Thursday, when the maximum temperature was 88 degrees. Observer Felger said yesterday that it would probably be cooler today—at least not so oppressive.

SEVEN CITIES REPORT TEMPERATURE OF 100

Thermometer Registers 106 at Petersburg

Greensboro Has Maximum of 103, Anderson, Richmond and Columbus 100—Thunder Showers in Various Localities

Atlanta, June 12.—Seven cities in the South today reported temperatures of 100 degrees or more. Reports from practically all sections showed high temperatures and a general continuance of drouth conditions Heat records for June have been broken in many places. The highest temperature reported was from Petersburg, Va., where a government thermometer registered 106 degrees, breaking all local records for the month. Rain fell there late today bringing relief.

Greensboro, N. C., had a maximum temperature of 103, Norfolk, Va., and Montgomery Ala., of 101 and Anderson, S. C., Richmond, Va., and Columbus, Ga., of 100. Other temperatures reported included the following: Macon, Ga., 99; Columbia, S. C., 98.3; Lynchburg, Va., 98; Raleigh, N. C., 97.6 Birmingham, Ala., 98; Charlotte, N C., 96.2; Danville, Va., 96; Chattanooga, Tenn, 97.2; Knoxville, Tenn., 96; Atlanta, Ga., 99; New Orleans, La., 91; Asheville, N. C., 90; Savannah, Ga., Mobile, Ala., 90; Spartanburg, S. C., 89; Jacksonville, Fla., 89; Tampa, Fla., 89; and Wilmington, N. C., 88.

While local thunder showers fell in various localities, the precipitation, as a rule was not sufficient to give any lasting benefit to growing crops.

Heat records here for June were broken today. The weather bureau thermometer, located on the top of an 11-story building, registered 99 degrees at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The previous record for the month was 98.2 established on June 4th, 1911.

Today's record has been surpassed but twice here. In July, 1913, the mercury reached 99.4, and in July, 1881, it went to 100. The previous heat record this year was made on May 29th, when the thermometer registered 97.

Relief in Sight.

Washington, June 12.—Withering heat that caused suffering and death in many cities of the Central valleys during the first four days of the week was succeeded today by cooler weather, nearly everywhere except along the Atlantic coast from Boston southward, where relief is expected tomorrow.

Weather bureau officials tonight indicated that cooler weather would extend eastward tomorrow.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF T. P. A. ADJOURNS.

Meets Next at Omaha—Tar Heel on Directorate.

Houston, Texas, June 12.—The National convention of the Travelers' Protective Association adjourned here tonight after adopting a number of amendments to the constitution of the association.

Among amendments adopted was one making elegible to membership in the association traveling adjusters for fire insurance companies, traveling adjustors, auditors and representatives of mercantile companies and agencies, traveling representatives and examiners of banks, and traveling freight solicitors for railroad and steamship companies.

Omaha was selected as the 1915 convention city.

V. J. Schoenecker, of Wisconsin, was elected president; Dan W. Sale, Virginia, vice president, and C. F. Tomlinson, North Carolina, a member of the board of directors.

SENATE TO GET ITS FIRST LOOK TODAY.

At Sort of Anti-Trust Legislation Committee Wants.

Washington, June 12.—The Senate probably will get its first look tomorrow at the sort of trust legislation the inter-State commerce committee wishes to see it act on at the present time. The committee today concluded work on its Federal trade commission bill and decided to make it a substitute for the measure on like lines passed by the House.

Chairman Newlands probably will lay the bill with amendments adopted today before the Senate tomorrow and will seek to have it made the unfinished business.

Although drawn on similar lines, there are material differences in the Senate and House bills, which were added to by today's amendments. One amendment provides that "unfair competition in commerce is hereby declared to be unlawful."

"IT WAS SO HOT!"

Winston Girl Fned in Richmond for Her Lack of Dress.

Richmond, Va., June 12.—Ethel Marcuson, 19, of Winston-Salem, N. C., was fined $25 by Police Justice Crutchfield today for appearing in the streets in an extremely low-cut, clinging "silhouette" pink silk dress.

"It was so hot yesterday," was her only comment.

JONES' NOMINATION TO SENATE MONDAY

Library of Congress

As Governor of Federal Reserve Board.

PERSONNEL SELECTED

And Will be Announced by President Wilson Monday—Officials Still Expect Reserve Banks to Open by August 1st.

Washington, June 12.—Thomas B. Jones, a Chicago lawyer, former trustee of Princeton University and a personal friend of President Wilson, has practically been selected for governor of the Federal Reserve Board. It was said unofficially today that his nomination would go to the Senate Monday.

With the nomination of Mr. Jones, the names of Paul M. Warburg, of New York; W. P. G. Harding, of Birmingham, Ala.; A. C. Miller, of San Francisco, and E. C. Simmons, of St. Louis, to be members of the board are expected to go to the Senate.

Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams will be ex-officio members.

It was definitely stated at the White House that the President formally would announce the personnel of the board Monday.

In Operation by August 1st.

Treasury Department officials were still of the opinion today that it will be possible to have the 12 Federal reserve banks in operation by August 1st, although they say the demand for money to move crops has not been such as would suggest any great strain to be relieved by the reserve banks.

Practically the remainder of June will be required for the election of directors of the Federal reserve banks. Banks which are to become members of reserve banks now are balloting for directors of the A and B classes. Each reserve bank will have three directors of class A and three of class B, all named by electors selected by the various member banks. Three of class C are then to be designated by the Federal Reserve Board and must be men with banking experience.

The organization committee has not made any call upon member banks as yet for the initial one-sixth of their subscriptions to the capital stock of the reserve bank to which they wish to belong. Such a call hardly will be made until after the Federal Reserve Board is confirmed by the Senate and takes up its work in Washington.

Much detail work awaits the Federal Reserve Board after it assumes office. Secretaries and assistants to the members must be selected and a complete system of the reports of the reserve banks must be worked out.

Not to be General Banks.

It is pointed out by Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller of the Currency Williams that the Federal Reserve banks will in no sense be general banks and consequently their functions will be wholly unlike those of the ordinary city banks.

One of the first duties which will fall upon the directors of the 12 Federal reserve banks will be the establishment of branches necessary to accommodate the business of the various districts. Branches will be operated by directors named by the main bank and the Federal Reserve Board. No limit has been placed upon the number of branches, which each Federal Reserve Bank may establish.

FAMINE AT VERA CRUZ IS THREATENED IS REPORT

Washington Gets Wires Busy for Supplies

Washington, June 12.—News today of a threatened famine among inhabitants of Vera Cruz and vicinity set the telegraph wires to work out of the department of commerce and tonight Secretary Redfield had received assurances that American merchants soon would have large supplies of food on the way to the Mexican port to be sold at moderate prices. The shipment will go in free of duty if officials can arrange it.

Secretary Redfield's telegrams were addressed to commercial organizations and agents in cities throughout the East and South. Several of the replies said shipments of food stuffs would be ready for the first vessels leaving for Vera Cruz and the war department will be asked to arrange prompt transporation.

The war department itself is going ahead with plans for relieving the situation but in the course of a few weeks the problem may be solved through Mr. Redfield's efforts, making it unnecessary for the government itself to go into business as wholesale grocer.

Acting Secretary of war Breckenridge who has plans for the shipment of food on government transports today cabled General Funston to recommend some means of food distribution to relieve the needs of the civilian population without destroying the business of the regular native merchants.

American soldiers and marines are being fed through the quartermaster's departmentfi but the civilian population is dependent on retail merchants who are cnarging enormous prices for food.

WANTS FEDERAL JUDGE A. G. DAYTON IMPEACHED

Resolutions Introduced in the House by Neely.

Charges Judge With "High Crime and Misdemeanors," Conspiracy to Bring About Removal of Judge; Misconduct.

Washington, June 12.—Resolutions of impeachment against Federal District Judge Alston M. Dayton, of West Virginia, were introduced in the House today and without opposition referred to the Judiciary committee.

Representative Neely, of West Virginia, assailed Judge Dayton on the floor, charging him with "high crime and misdemeanors," conspiracy with corporations and individuals to bring about the removal of Judge John J. Jackson, so that he might get his favoritism to corporations having extensive litigation in his court, and personal and judicial misconduct.

In reading the impeachment charge to the House, Representative Neely made these accusations:

"That Judge Dayton assisted his son, Arthur Dayton, a young attorney in preparation of numerous cases against a certain corporation for which Arthur Dayton is attorney, which cases were tried before Alston G. Dayton."

With "abusing his power and influence as judge to further the interests of his own son in advising litigans in his court to discharge other lawyers representing such litigants."

With "having actively engaged in politics and with having used his office as judge to further political ambitions and associations of his friends."

"That the judge violated acts of Congress relating to selection of jurors, improperly issued injunctions to prevent miners from exercising their legal rights and showing hatred toward miners on trial in his court for alleged violation of injunctions awarded by him."

The impeachment charges accuse the judge of having publicly denounced the President of the United States from the bench and before a jury; of conspiring to form a carbon trust, refusing to enforce certain Federal laws, and discharging jurors for rendering verdicts not agreeable to him, of stating that he would not permit the United Mine Workers to exist within the jurisdiction of his court and denouncing that organization as one of criminal conspirators and of being temperamentally unfit for judicial office."

The judiciary committee will decide whether to recommend investigation of the charges.

TO FACE QUESTION OF SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN

Battle Expected in Club Federation Today.

Effort Will be Made to Have Organization Make Fight for Ballot Part of Its Propaganda—Eschewed Heretofore.

Chicago, June 12.—The General Federation of Women's Clubs tomorrow, for the first time, is expected to face the question of woman suffrage for adoption or rejection. There is little opposition to the adoption of a resolution approving the principles of equal suffrage, but the battle will come when an effort is made to have the Federation make the fight to obtain the ballot for women a part of the Federation propaganda.

The subject heretofore has died in committee because the Federation's constitution prohibits consideration of religion and politics.

In the numerous conferences of this convention, however, the great strides made by suffragists in recent years were recognized and it was agreed that enlightenment on the subject might come properly under the heading of education.

It is a further rule that the resolutions shall deal only with those subjects which have been discussed on the floor.

For this reason Miss Helen Boswell, of New York, referred in the briefest possible manner to the subject at the educational conference today. Although she scarcely more than mentioned its existence, it was sufficient to form the entering wedge.

It is believed the resolutions committee tomorrow will report in favor of the principle of equal suffrage. This, it is said, will bring the fight to the floor. Delegates today held three sessions. Tonight there was an address by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of New York, president of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance.

CABINET ELATED OVER PROSPECTS

For the Success of Mexican Mediation.

BRYAN EVEN LAUGHS

Wilson Breaks His Long Silence and Declares the Outlook Encouraging—Carranza Will Send Representatives

Washington, June 12.—The Washington government was so optimistic today over prespects for the success of Mexican mediation that Cabinet members were highly elated when they left the White House after a conference with the President. President Wilson broke his long silence on the subject by authorizing the declaration that the outlook for mediation was encouraging. Secretary Bryan was so enthused that he laughed with newspaper men and fellow Cabinet members outside the executive offices. Mr. Bryan and Secretary Daniels asserted the Mexican situation looked hopeful from the viewpoint of the United States.

Later in the day Secretary Bryan verified reports from Niagara Falls that the Huerta delegates and representatives of the United States had agreed on the method for transmitting authority in Mexico from Huerta to the proposed provisional government. He declined, however, to reveal the details of the method.

General Carranza's latest note, forwarded early today by mail to Niagara Falls, announcing his decision to send representatives to the mediation conference was touched on at the Cabinet meeting. The White House learned early in the day of Carranza's decision and also that he adhered strictly to his attitude that no armistice should be required.

No Damper on Euthusiasm

Word from Niagara Falls that the mediators would not officially receive Carranza delegates into the conference unless they should agree to an armistice threw no damper on the enthusiasm of government officials.

That Constitutionalist representatives will go to the conference, officially or unofficially, seemed certain today in view of the fact that General Carranza already has designated the three men. As announced here today his commissioners will be Fernando Iglesias Calderon, for many years prominent in Mexican affairs, formerly a minister in the cabinet of President Diaz; Luis Cabrera, active in the Constitutionalist ranks, and Jose Vasconcelos, a young Mexican lawyer, who has been prominent in the revolutionary movement.

Mr. Calderon is at Saltillo conferring with Carranza and is expected to leave there for Niagara Falls with instructions from his chief almost immediately. Mr. Cabrera is in Washington and Mr. Vasconcelos is expected to return here from New York tomorrow. While peace prospects were brightening the revolution in Mexico was going steadily ahead, according to advices.

General Aobrenon was reported to be leading a terrific assault on Mazatlan, the fall of the city being predicted before many days. At Zacatecas the revolutionists continued fighting and ammunition for General Villa to be used in the campaign against San Luis Potosi had been unloaded from the steamer Antilla at Tampico and was en route to Torreon by rail.

One More Important Battle

Some Constitutionalist leaders asserted they looked for only one more important battle, that at San Luis Potosi. Even that, they believed would not compare in ferocity with Torreon, Tampico or Saltillo.

With regard to ammunition being shipped from the United States president Wilson made the position of this government cvlear in an execute order declaring that no vessels be cleared from American ports for Mexico and also that the embargo at border points be enforced strictly.

A Way Around Order

It was pointed out in this connection, however, in several sources, that ammunition might reach Mexico through subterfuge, vessels clearing for Havana or other foreign ports and then re-clearing for Mexican ports. The United States could not interfere with such shipments.

FIRST PEACE PROTOCOL IS SIGNED AT NIAGARA FALLS

EX-SENATOR LORIMER'S CHICAGO BANK CLOSED

Also Three Other Related State Banks.

Chief Institution Expected to Reopen Next Week, Says Examiner—Others Closed as Precautionary Measure.

Chicago, June 12.—Four State banks—the most important having for its president William Lorimer, unseated from the United States Senate, were closed by the State banking department here today. Representatives of the department immediately began an examination into the institution's affairs. Rumors were current that a receivership would be asked.

The four banks were the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, the Broadway State Bank, the Illinois State Bank, and the Ashland-Twelfth Street State Bank, known as the Lorimer-Munday chain of banks. The La Salle Street Bank was the main institution. Combined, the banks have deposits of $n,411,997, and reported cash means of $1,643,692.

Of deposits $966,000 consists of city funds. The bulk of this amount, $650,000, is on deposit with the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank.

Daniel Harkin, chief examiner, who took personal charge of the downtown bank and sent deputies to the smaller ones, said he expected to see thre La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank open for business next week. He declared he sent examiners to the smaller institutions as a precautionaly measure. He insisted there was no political phase to the action of his department.

An examination of the La Salle Trust and Savings Bank by Harkin two months ago, disclosed, he said, a quantity of what he regarded as slow assets. State officials say the bank officials pleaded for a time to change that condition.

In the last three weeks, according to Harkin and the cashier of the bank, there has been what was termed a mild run on the bank, causing a depletion of about $1,000,000 in deposits.

Former United States Senator Lorimer, president, and C. B. Munday, vice-president, refused to comment on the situation.

James B. Forgan, president of the First National Bank, and chairman of the Clearing House committee, said:

"The closing of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank should not have the slightest effect on any other banks in the Chicago district. The banks are not associated with other downtown banks. The La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank is not a member of the Clearing House association, and has had none of the privileges of the clearing house."

State officials declare the financial condition of the La Salle Street Bank had caused them to fear the possibility of a disastrous run.

Mr. Munday recently was named, among other defendants, in two court actions—a suit filed by John H. Coyne against James J. Brady, State auditor, and an application for a receiver by the minority stockholders of the Hill Cemetery Company.

In the Coyne suit is was alleged that Brady, Munday and C. E. Ward, secretary to Lorimer, maliciously had devised a scheme to oust Coyne as a bank examiner. The petition charged that the La Salle Street institution made a 12,500 contribution to some unknown person, who delivered the same to Brady, and that following Brady's election the bank made a further contribution of $500 to the defendant, in consideration of which it was to be allowed to name certain employees in the State Auditor's office.

In the Rose Hill Cemetery case the application for a receiver charged that Munday and others had caused a diversion of the assets of the company.

UNCLE SAM'S INCOME 30 MILLIONS ABOVE EXPENSES

Surplus Not so Large as Last Year by Ten Million

Washington, June 12.—Estimates tonight by Secretary McAdoo indicated that the government income for the ofical year ending June 30th will exceed ordinary expenditures by about $30,0000,000. This is about $10,000,000 less than last year's surplus. Income tax returns have fallen below original estimates, but the customs houses turned in about $21,000,000 more than predicted. Whatever surplus there is will be absorbed by Panama Canal payments, as it was last year.

The department is convinced that many liable to the income tax have failed to make returns and that many have made inaccurate returns. Active steps will be taken to discover all evasions of the law, and a large additional amount undoubtedly will be collected from these delinquents".

ANXIETY FOR FATE OF RACING BALLOONS.

Three of the Four Are Missing—Ominous Message.

Portland, Ore., June 12.—Anxiety prevails here tonight regarding the fate of three of the four balloons which started from here late Thursday in the first National balloon race ever held in the Northwest. Shortly after their departure the aircraft were caught in a terrific thunderstorm. Definite knowleage of the storm's treatment of the balloons is confined to a single case.

Late today a carrier pigeon fluttered into its cote here. Tied to it was a bit of paper and on it was written "Balloon struck by lightning. Berry hurt, come quick. "Morrison."

Presents Delegates of the United States and the Huerta Government

IN PRESENCE OF A. B. C. MEDIATORS

No Mention of Huerta as Provisional President

DOCUMENT VERY BRIEF

No Mention Made of Huerta as Provisional President—Method of Transfer of Executive Power From Huerta's Hands is Omitted.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 12.—Delegates from the United States and the Huerta government in the presence of the mediating representatives of Argentina, Brazil and Chile, today formally signed the first protocol of the series through which it is hoped to restore peace in Mexico. The agreement as to the manner of transferring executive power from Huerta to the new provisional government, reduced to writing, provides:

"A government is to be constituted in Mexico of a character to be later provided, which shall be recognized by the United States on (date to be fixed) and which from that day forward shall exercise public functions until there shall be inaugurated a constitutional president.

Protocol Significant.

The brief protocol was significant of two things:

It makes no mention of Gen. Huerta as the provisional President, and as stated in Associated Press dispatches last night, it omits the method of transfer which the Mexican delegates and mediators suggested, and to which the United States objected, on the ground that its retention would be tantamount to recognition of the existing regime.

The Mexican plan provided that Huerta should name as minister of foreign affairs the man agreed on here for President.

The Mexican delegates, while abandoning the constitutional form of succession as a part of the protocol, are satisfied because it does not specifically deny Huerta's right to name as minister of foreign affairs the man chosen here for provisional President if the latter sees fit to accept designation from him. It is not considered probable, however, that the new provisional President, who is likely to be a Constitutionalist, would take the executive power directly from Huerta, but he might do so from some other individual whom Huerta might leave in authority.

Concentrating on Second Part.

All parties now are concentrating on the second part of the peace plan which relates to the name of the provisional President, and possibly will include his cabinet of four.

Though the protocol is of comparatively few words, it is the embodiment of that for which the United States has been striving for more than a year—elimination of Huerta. With Huerta's formal statement of his intention to withdraw when Mexico was politically pacified, today's protocol takes for granted that such a pacification will occur and arranges for the transition.

The question of Constitutionalist representation here is still an open one. The mediators say they will not officially admit the Carranza delegates unless they agree to an armistice. It is not doubted, though, that some way may be found for the Constitutionalists to take part in the peace parleys after they arrive.

Members of the mediating colony tonight were united in optimistic spirit for the first time since the conferences opened.

With one block cemented firmly in place, every one was hopeful that the work done today would prove to be the solid cornerstone from which the entire structure of the peace plan will rapidly arise.

Carranza's Policy is to Delay.

El Paso, Tex., June 12.—Delay is the basis of Carranza's policy, according to information here tonight.

An only menace to this supposed plan today was the rumor, partially admitted, that the long expected estrangement between Carranza and General Villa is near a crisis.

Villa, to whose credit is given nearly all the recent successes of the revolution, has remained at Torreon, viewing General Natera's efforts to take Zacatecas. Reports from the South today said Villa had shown great resentment at Carranza's recent attitude toward him, especially in the Natera appointment.

General Carranza tonight issued an order that General Villa proceed immediately from Torreon to the assistance of General Natera.

DOUBLE HEADER TODAY IN INDEPENDENT LEAGUE.

Stags Play Wrightsboro and Immanuels Play the Tigers.

Two bang-up games are promised those who journey to Hilton diamond this afternoon, in the regular scheduled games of the Independent League. This league has already demonstrated that there is some real classy baseball talent on each of the clubs, and have been putting up as scrappy an exhibition of the National pastime as one would care to witness.

This afternoon the Stags will play the Wrightsboro boys in the opening engagement of the afternoon, and the Immanuel team will tackle the Tigers in the latter event. Both teams are well matched and classy games should be dished up in each instance. The Stags now head the percentage column, having won five straight games and lost none, while the Tigers come second, with four won and one lost. The Wrightsboro team has won just one engagement and lost five, and the Immanuels are tied with them for the cellar position with the same history of games played.

No admission is charged to these games, and as excellent grandstand accommodations are provided, large crowds should witness each of the games.

BIG GAMES TODAY AT SUNSET PARK

BRIGADE PLAYS Y. M. C. A. AND GIANTS TUSSEL WITH W. L. I.

Base Ball fans are promised two good games today in the regular double header at Sunset Park. At 3 o'clock, the Demons play against the Giants while at 5 o'clock, the Y. M. C. A. play the Brigade boys.

The surprise of the season is the showing the Giants are making. While they only have one game to their credit, each time they have played against a team, has demonstrated a wonderful improvement over the former one. With Kite at the receiving station and Rivenbark on the Mound, the Giants present as formidable an aggregation as any in the League.

Rivenbark's showing against the hard hitting Y. M. C. A. Boys was a glad surprise to the Giant's rooters and had the Y. M. C. A. 's goat all the time, they only being able to garner two hits during the entire game. Davis says he is going to put it over W. L. I. this time, and a big bunch of rooters will be on hand for each respective team. W. L. I. realizes they have a tough fight ahead of them and will go into the game with a do or die spirit. Shaw their star twirler is right there with the goods and had them guessing all the time. His left hand delivery somewhat bewilders his opponents, and his assortment of curves are of the classy brand.

Another surprise of the season is the slump of the peppery "Y" Boys. No one as yet has been able to explain the psychological reason for this extraordinary phenomena, but never-the-less, the fact remains that they have been beaten. Seitters has last week in order to be in tip-top shape for the coming game with the Boys' Brigade. Emerson and his Brigade boys are determined to wrest today's game from the Y. M. C. A. and a battle royal is promised all those who see this game.

BUY ELECTRIC DREDGE FOR DEVELOPING LANDS

Tidewater Directors Authorize Purchase Yesterday.

Channels Will be Dredged and Marshes Filled in at Wrightsville Beach—Car Line to Cemetery—Improvements.

The purchase of the latest model of electric dredge at an approximate cost of $35,000 to be used in dredging the channels and filling in the marshes at Wrightsville Beach, was authorized at a meeting of the board of directors of the Tidewater Power Company, held in the offices of the company yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. This will be the initial step in the extension of this popular summer resort into a winter resort. The directors also authorized yesterday the extension of the car line from Fourth street out Red Cross to Oakdale cemetery, the franchise for which was recently granted by the city.

The meeting yesterday was one of the most important that the directors have held in some time and was presided over by Mr. Hugh MacRae, president of the Tidewater Power Company. A record of the proceedings was kept by Mr. Harry Woollcott, secretary of the corporation. Practically all the stockholders were present and the future development of Wrightsville Beach into an all-year-round resort was discussed in detail.

The dredge to be purchased will be one of the latest and most modern design. Its selection will be left largely to Mr. W. W. Randolph, of New York City, consulting engineer of the Tidewater Power Co. It is planned to have the dredge in operation by early fall. It will be used in developing the lands which were recently purchased from the State Board of Education. The total number of acres that will be reclaimed being in the neighborhood of 2,000. The entire length of the channel between the island and the mainland will be dredged and the dirt used to build up the marshes into lots for the erection of residences.

This kind of work has been done extensively in New Jersey and other sections and has been proven to be thoroughly practicable. At the southern end of the beach it is planned to fill in the larger part of the channel and later to construct an automobile road from the mainland to the island.

When the channel is dredged it will be one of the largest inland deep water basins on the South Atlantic coast and it is expected that this will prove to be especially popular with those who like yachting.

The Tidewater Power Company is using every possible means to make Wrightsville Beach the ideal summer resort of the South. Through the efforts of the company, the Beach Water Company, of which Mr. H. E. Bonitz is president, has recently made extensive additions to the beach water system. A new deep water well has been driven on the island near the present water tank and a new electric pump installed at the well. A six-inch water main extending the entire length of the beach has been laid to replace the former one, which was only two and one-half inches. The beach now has two deep water wells, the other one being at "The Hammocks." There are two electric pumps here. It is planned to make still further expension of the water service next year by installing fire hydrants for use in case of fire.

The Tidewater Power Company has recently endorsed the notes of the Wrightsville Beach corporation to pay the expense of the installation of a system of septic tanks. The cost will be about $4,000. Mr. C. R. Humphreys, the civil engineer, will have general supervision of this work, which will begin soon. The system to be installed has been approved by both the State and county boards of health, and is the most modern that can be had. It is planned to have this work completed within the next month or six weeks.

Wrightsville Beach has always enjoyed a reputation as one of the most healthful resorts to be found anywhere and no effort is being spared to see that this is maintained.

FORMING PLANS FOR GENERAL ORGANIZATION

Meeting Of Representatives to Be Held in Court House Next Week.

Mr. Hugh MacRae announced yesterday that a meeting of the representatives from the commercial, civic and fraternal organizations for the purpose of forming one central body whose purpose shall be to develop the vast resources of Wilmington and vicinity will probably be held in the Court House on next Thursday night. The sub-committee which was appointed at a meeting of architects and real estate agents several weeks ago to make the preliminary arrangements are now calling on the different interests to appoint representatives.

The idea is the outcome of an address at the meeting of architects and real estate agents by Mr. Frank Meade, the celebrated landscape architect, in which he outlined briefly the great work that such an organization could do.

Before the Wilmington Merchants' Association Thursday night Mr. MacRae outlined to some extent the splendid work that such a body of men could do. He showed that Wilmington has fallen far short of her possibilities because of the lack of co-operation of all the interests here. By interlocking them in one organization Mr. MacRae feels that it will be possible to accomplish great things for the city in the future. The idea was received with great enthusiasm by the merchants and they appointed Messrs. R. H. Munson and S. R. Keyes as their representatives in this body.

In his address Mr. MacRae called attention to the form of government that Wilmington now has and suggested that it could be improved. He advocated a pure Commission form of city government which has been proven a success in many cities of this country. Under the present system or form he felt that the present staff of city officials was as efficient as could be had. He did not wish in any way to reflect on their ability nor did he wish to be thought of as doing so.

COL. TAYLOR DONATES PLAYGROUND TO CITY.

Lot at Third and Church Streets Will be Made Into Small Park.

A lot fronting 66 feet on Third street and 100 feet on Church street, to be developed into a small park and playgrounds for the children of the southern part of the city has been donated by Col. and Mrs. Walker Taylor for a period of two months and possibly for a longer time to the city of Wilmington. The park will be developed under the direction of the Tree and Park Commission. Chairman John J. Blair and the other members have expressed themselves as very much gratified at this generous action of Col. and Mrs. Taylor.

The plans of the Commission contemplate the construction of a tennis court with a surface of sand-clay, which will be fenced in. There will also be a number of seats arranged on the property. The lot is surrounded by an avenue of trees which will add much to the comfort of those who use it.

The Street and Wharves Department of the city yesterday began work on making the improvements. A small house on the property has been moved to the rear. The money for doing the work will be secured from private sources.

CONTEST AMONG COUNTIES

In Sending Delegates to State Good Roads Convention at Durham July 9 and 10.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 12.—Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, secretary of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, has just announced an interesting new feature for the annual meeting which is to be held in Durham July 9 and 10, this being a system of awarding trophies or prizes for largest relative delegations, as follows:

1. A proper award will be made to the county which sends the largest number of delegates to the Durham convention, the award to be based on the following ratio of number attending to distance traveled, the distance to be reckoned by railroad mileage from the county seat of the county from which the delegate comes. In this scheme those attending from the city of Durham will not be reckoned.

One hundred and twenty-five delegates from a county whose county seat is a distance of fifteen miles or less from Durham would be rated the same as

One hundred delegates coming from a distance of 35 miles or less.

Seventy-five delegates coming from a distance of 50 miles or less.

Fifty delegates coming from a distance of 95 miles or less.

Thirty-five delegates coming from a distance of 115 miles or less.

Twenty-five delegates coming from a distance of 130 miles or less.

Fifteen delegates coming from a distance of 150 miles or less.

Ten delegates coming from a distance of 175 miles or less.

Five delegates coming from a distance of over 200 miles.

2. An award will also be made to the county making the best exhibit by means of photographs, maps and drawings illustrating the road system and condition of the roads in the county. If the county has no good roads, it has just as much chance to obtain the award by illustrating the bad condition of their roads, which will emphasize their need of good roads.

3. An award will also be made to the county which has the largest number of paid-up members in the North Carolina Good Roads Association, whether these members are in attendance or not.

Dr. Pratt says:

"It is hoped that all of the counties will get busy and help send the largest number of delegates ever before sent to a good roads convention. The good roads cause has reached a point in North Carolina at which the State should take hold as a State, and it is to thresh out thoroughly the matter of State aid that this convention will devote its energies. We want to save for North Carolina counties millions of dollars annually through the proper expenditure of road funds and the elimination of bad roads. All citizens interested in this cause should attend by all means."

WANT "KINKS" STRAIGHENED

Railroads Haul Coal Through Charlotte to Gastonia and Back to Charlotte to Get There.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 12.—Members of the North Carolina Corporation Commission returned today from Charlotte where they attended the hearing before a special examiner for the Inter-State Commerce Commission in the matter of the freight rates on coal into the southeastern territory, including North Carolina. Chairman Travis says the commission is confident that material concessions for North Carolina will be secured.

He says that one of the most notable pieces of evidence in the hearing came last afternoon after the railroad companies had put in their evidence to show that it would be ruinous to the roads to reduce the present coal rates to Charlotte and Gastonia to respectively $2.35 and $2.55. Clerk J. S. Griffin, of the commission, went on the stand and showed that the Southern and Seaboard Air Line are both now hauling coal through Charlotte to Gastonia and Penoca, respectively, and turning it over to the Piedmont Northern electric line to be hauled back to Charlotte for delivery, this needless extra handling cutting down the actual revenue for handling the coal to $1.93, when the coal could be delivered to Charlotte direct and save the extra hauling uselessly given to the electric line. Mr. Griffin showed that this is the actual practice in this Charlotte coal traffic.

Chairman Travis says the commission will insist on the elimination of this "kink" along with a general readjustment of rates. At the same time the commission will press for correction of similar abuses in the coal rate to Durham where it was shown some months ago that the Durham & South Carolina was getting a needless and excessive bonus for hauling coal from Durham to East Durham through co-operation of the Norfolk & Western and Seaboard Air Line.

Hearing at Norfolk.

Chairman Travis, of the Corporation Commission, went today to Norfolk to appear at a special hearing before a representative of the Inter-State Commerce Commission on the petition of railroad companies to continue the practice of charging a higher through rate to points beyond Norfolk in North Carolina than the combination of the intermediate rates. The commission through Commissioner Travis will oppose the railroad companies.

BOWDEN AND CABELL IN PRECARIOUS CONDITION

Little Hope for Men Injured in Motorcycle Wreck.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., June 12.—Edward Bowden, of this city, and George Cabell, of Danville, Va., who were seriously if not fatally injured in a motorcycle accident in this city yesterday afternoon, are still living, but little hope is entertained for the recovery of either, and, in fact, the physicians have but little doubt but that Cabell will succumb to his injuries.

An examination shows that Bowden's jaw bone is broken in three places, his collar bone broken and that he has numerous other injuries. Cabell is literally torn to pieces, and if he survives he will be a cripple for life.

The head of one of the greatest steel mills in America walked into a Studebaker store last week and said: "Send me out a Studebaker SIX. Studebakers are the hardest people in the automobile business to satisfy on steels. Judging by their chemical, metallurgical, and physical tests, this must be the best "Six" in the world".

Studebaker

Economical Light-Weight SIX $1575

One of the reasons why Studebakers are the hardest people in the automobile business to satisfy on steels is this:

In no other way than by heat treatment of steels can the strength of a "SIX" be greatly increased while the weight is being decreased.

In no other way than by the scientific distribution of this weight through intensive manufacturing can that balance be secured which results in the superb roadability of the Studebaker SIX.

And the important thing for you to remember is that the Studebaker SIX stands absolutely alone among light "Sixes" in the application of manufacturing methods without which light-weight, strength, balance and roadability are impossible.

The difference between a brand-new manufactured Studebaker SIX and a brand-new assembled or semi-manufactured "Six" is immediately apparent in the superior way in which the Studebaker holds the road. And that difference grows more marked month after month. It culminates tragically, in a second-hand sale of the non-manufactured "Six" at a terrific depreciation.

The Studebaker FOUR is characterized by the same manufacturing excellence and quality of material as the Studebaker SIX.

How Studebaker SIX Superiority Shows Itself

The Studebaker SIX will glide silently from a standing start on high into a forty mile gait, in a distance of less than 200 yards.

The Studebaker SIX when it is skimming along at a high rate of speed will actually seem to you—from the lack of effort and vibration—to be going at a rate ten miles per hour less.

The Studebaker SIX will stick to a straight line with scarcely a touch on the steering wheel, mile after mile and hour after hour—while other "Sixes" are constantly creeping to one side or the other, and being coaxed back.

The Studebaker SIX will take steeper hills and more of them, on high, than any other "Six" it meets in a day's run.

The Studebaker SIX is not merely motor-silent, but silent all over—the transmission on the rear axle, in addition to its other advantages, contributing to that result.

The Studebaker Proof Book describes and pictures the scientific manufacturing operations of Studebaker. Send for it.

Saturday, June 13, 1914.

Diplomats are made but diplomatists are born.

The right sort of man will insist on his rights.

If anything happens to Huerta he can blame himself.

The people are getting more jealous of their rights and it is not a wise political convention that pays no heed to it.

Doubtless, the credit for a policy of watchful waiting is due to the Boston woman who has at last landed a man after waiting for him for fifty years.

A doctor says a woman has more nerve than a man, but did he ever observe that a man gets more on his nerve than a woman gets on hers?

One of Noah's opportunities was to swat the two flies which seem to have failed to get in the soup on the ark. His neglect makes fly swatters of all his living descendants.

Colonel Cansler, of Tirza, having again become a candidate for railroad commissioner, the alert South Carolina press should at once disclose the designs of the Hon. Josh Ashley.

Says the Charlotte News: "A South Carolina ni-poet murmurs: 'And the echoes whisper among the pines where the wild sweet lilies grow'." For ev'ry lily in the pines there are millions of cattle ticks ago.

The greatest difficulty which every city has to overcome in its ambition to make greater strides along all lines of progress is the indifference of men who ought to be among the leaders for greater development. Any plan to get indifference out of a whole lot of good men would be first aid to greater development.

Says the Washington Herald: "It is strange we never hear of any panics in Wall Street these days." Yet, Colonel Roosevelt who had one on his hands while he was President in 1907, wants the country to be afraid of President Wilson and a Democratic administration. We hardly think the people have forgotten to know where the laugh comes in.

If you hear of anybody's taking water when Colonel Roosevelt returns from Europe it will be Pinchot taking it from the Rough Rider because he got gay and wanted to read Mr. George W. Perkins out of the Progressive party. Mr. Perkins paid more for his share in the Progressive party than Pinchot has paid. It is always the stockholder with one share who is liable to apply for a receiver.

Pinchot and other Progressives protest to Roosevelt that George W. Perkins, National chairman of the party, should be eliminated because he is in alliance with trusts and is a director in one of the biggest of them all. What will the kickers do when they learn that Teddy and George W., have pretty much the same idea about Trusts? Neither do they remember that Perkins is the meal ticket of the Progressive party.

The Asheville Citizen suggests: "When you have nothing else to do, ponder deeply over the advantages of a State-wide primary applying to all elective offices." We have pondered deeply and long and we have wondered and wondered why North Carolina did not have a ballot nominating primary at least 25 years ago. One who looks on at an old fashioned county convention sees the reason why there is no primary.

We get this from the Lumberton Tribune: "Three years ago the severe drought was broken on June 7th and more cotton was made in Robeson than could be gathered. This year the drought was broken June 5th and 6th, and everything is favorable for another big crop." News like that is cheering, and it is practically the same report that we hear from other counties. Cotton can stand a great deal of dry weather if the ploughing is deep. In the language of an agricultural authority on The Star, "cotton is no pond lily that it should have to stand in water to grow."

A DEMOCRAT AT SEA.

A party first has to stand on its promises to the people and claim the continued support of the people upon fulfillment of its promises, so far as that can be done. A party's platform is a party's declaration of principles along with certain promises or pledges which indicate how the party stands. The party makes such declarations through its State convention, which is the organic and authoritative body for the party.

A party has to undergo criticism or gain commendation for the declaration of its State convention, and already much criticism of the new platform is bobbing up in various directions. It is unfortunate, therefore, that the Democratic party in State convention held in Raleigh, June 4th, enters upon a campaign in which it has to defend its platform or explain it to the satisfaction of a large element of the Democracy itself.

The Star already has expressed regret that the State convention saw fit to promise a State-wide primary in part only, but we thought it was sufficient to express an honest disappointment the day after the convention completed its work and then suspend judgment till the line of campaign had been cast. Even if we cannot all see alike as to a State-wide primary, the maximum of achievements of the party in North Carolina can be approved and commended. However, there are other things than the primary upon which the platform does not ring clearly and upon which many Democrats have grounds for voicing more or less dissatisfaction. Criticism of the platform seems to be based more upon what is omitted from it than upon what it actually contains.

Criticism from antagonistic sources might be expected and veiled opposition might be anticipated from others, but while they are worthy of consideration they need not be taken too seriously, but when a Democrat like the Hon. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, confesses that he does not know exactly how the party stands on one important question, it is time for the platform to be explained or interpreted by the party's executive organization. In an open letter to the Hon. Hugh Chatham, chairman of the recent State convention, Mr. Brooks asks some pointed and knotty questions which demand an answer.

In the first place, Mr. Brooks reiterates disappointment that the platform declaration on the primary question does not cover the matter in its broadest sense, and, therefore, meets with widespread dissatisfaction. He passes over that, however, to say that he expects to tender his services as a speaker in the campaign and wants to know how the party stands on the proposed constitutional amendments which were recommended by two Democratic legislative bodies and a Democratic Governor.

We rather think the party can be said to stand for every one of the proposed constitutional amendments, despite the fact that the State convention platform is either vague or silent upon all but one. We take it, however, that the convention did not purposely ignore the other amendments, but intended to emphasize one, for the reason that the action of the Democratic constitutional commission and the passage of the amendments by a Democratic Legislature was sufficient to show how the party stands on the amendments. At the same time, Cnairman Chatham can make his own explanation, and the State executive committee which meets at Raleigh June 26th, can interpret the Democratic position as fully as it desires to do so. The committee ought to do that, too, and set at rest any disappointment that may be felt over the declarations or omissions of the State convention.

Without regard to the State convention, we have no doubt whatever as to where the party stands on the constitutional amendments, for the origin and record as to all the amendments is plain. They were prepared under Democratic auspices and submitted to the people by a Democratic Legislature, so they are absolutely party measures to be urged in the campaign just as much as if the State convention had been more explicit than its platform unfortunately is not.

We think a little suspension of judgment till the executive committee meets and acts will do well at this time, for we rather think it will all come out in the washing. After all, the people are the Democratic party and they can go on with what they stand for without convention declarations covering everything as completely as desired. The people have to take more initiative than usual under such circumstances, and if they are in advance of their State convention platform it shows that they are stronger than the party organization itself.

When a convention does not declare the whole book, the people know what is in it and they know what they stand for, whether the convention does or not.

The Star congratulates the Fayetteville Observer upon its enlarged form, improved appearance and extension of news service. Our esteemed contemporary is an eight-page paper and has added the Associated Press dispatches to its service. Its equipment has been supplemented by a new lynotype machine, and the readers of that staunch old paper are to be congratulated upon getting what is coming to them. It all shows progressiveness on the part of the publishers and it means that the city on the upper Cape Fear is to be provided with a daily paper that will reflect the growth and importance of that substantial and flourishing place.

CAROLINA HOGS FOR ILLINOIS

Illinois is one of the greatest hog raising and corn growing states of the Union, but what is to be thought of the fact that one of the most prominent and successful live-stock men in illinois has stocked his farm with pure bred North Carolina Berkshire hogs? Such is the case, however, for the Moore County News, of Carthage, N. C., states that Professor R. R. Luman, of Aurora, Ill. has closed a deal with Mr. A. M. Swinnerton, of Moore county, to ship a carload of Pinehurst Berkshire's to Mr R. W. Leatherbee, at Lake Bluff, Illinois. Mr. Luman is an expert and his selection of 30 fine North Carolina Berkshires to breed from in Illinois shows what a success of the live-stock industry can be made in North Carolina by such intelligent breeders as Mr. Swinnerton.

Professor Luman came to North Carolina to select the Berkshires for shipment, and it speaks well for the Pinehurst farm, that the hogs bred there were preferred by him to all others looked over elsewhere. Mr. Swinnerton tells the News that if such a man as Luman considers Pinehurst Berkshires of the type and quality wanted in such a great hog raising State as Illinois, it certainly should convince Southern breeders that it is not necessary to send West to purchase foundation stock. It also is emphasized that if the time has come and the tide has turned, wherein some of the vast amount of money which has been sent West has begun to flow the other way, it is gratifying that the ball has been set rolling by the Pinehurst farm.

The Illinois man not only found superior Berkshires at Pinehurst, but near the farm dairy was a fine field of corn which he declared was the best he had seen on his way from Chicago, Mr. Swinnerton submits the proposition that if it is possible to produce corn and Berkshire hogs on Moore county land which sells for $15 an acre, and just as much corn and as good hogs as can be produced in the great Corn Belt, "it certainly will be only a short time before the Sand Hills of North Carolina will become more widely known."

For that matter, men like Mr. Swinnerton demonstrate the great versatility of all the different kinds of lands to be found in North Carolina, and especially will his success attract greater attention to the possibilities of Eastern North Carolina lands of every description. It is such progressive pioneers as he who have been leading factors in the wonderful development of Moore county. However, the Moore, County News states that nearly every farmer in the county raises good hogs, and it is the diversification of farm industry and good roads that is making Moore county prosperous and attractive to newcomers.

One fact which shows the significance of the shipment of Berkshires from Moore county to the great corn belt, is that Professor Luman is in charge of the famous Mooseheart breeding farm at Aurora, Illinois, where all kinds of cattle and livestock are bred, and where a feature of the business is to fatten hogs, cattle and sheep for the Chicago market. However gratifying it may be that the Moore county Berkshires are being shipped to the West, we don't know but that we are sorry that those fine hogs were shipped out West instead of into the various counties of North Carolina.

WILMINGTON ASSETS

Mr. Hugh MacRae's address at the annual meeting of the Wilmington Merchants' Association at the Masonic Temple on Thursday evening, was inspiring, and what he said should be fresh encouragement for those interested in making Wilmington a greater city in every particular. Talks like that of Mr. MacRae's are well calculated to arouse us to more earnest, vigorous action and organic purpose in the work of promoting the development of this city.

Mr. MacRae spoke as an optimist and as a strong believer in the potential factors, which we can utilize to great advantage in making Wilmington a greater commercial and industrial city and in making it the center of an agricultural, trucking and fruit production that will produce prosperity around as well as in Wilmington.

The speaker certainly has done his part and is going to do more in the way of developing Wilmington, and those who heard his address or read it in The Star yesterday should carefully note that he emphasized at least three of Wilmington's greatest assets for intelligent handling. Mr. MacRae is himself a Wilmington asset, and the community should appreciate his strong and practical suggestions and act upon them.

We always believe in going to work upon a line that is laid out before us, and that is what we should do with what Mr. MacRae so strikingly suggests should be done. He acts himself, and it is up to all of us to get just as busy as he is. He goes at a pretty good gait, it is true, but so long as he sets the pace, the balance of us should keep up with him.

The congressional convention fight in the Third district was not as long drawn out as that in the Ninth, but it was fast and furious while it lasted. Several of the delegates had to be sent to the hospital for repairs. There were several fights in the convention hall at one time. Give us the primary and end such disgraceful scenes as these.—Concord Tribune.

THE MONDAY STAR.

The esteemed Wilmington Star has taken another step forward and is now a daily paper in fact, being printed seven days in the week. This change came into effect Monday.—Lumberton Tribune.

The Wilmington Star, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is now a daily in fact as well as name, being published seven days in the week. The Star has made great strides in the past few years, and The Patriot wishes for it many more year of life and prosperity.—Greensboro Patriot.

It is with pleasure that the people of Columbus county hear the announcement that the Wilmington Star will hereafter be printed seven days in the week. The Star is accounted irrefutable authority throughout Eastern Carolina. It goes to the uttermost end of the rural routes, and the farmers swear by it; it penetrates the forest to the lumber camp and the fortunate possessor is besieged by would-be readers; it enters the office, the workshop, the mill, the home, and everywhere it is welcome, for it is clean and dependable. If, as happens now and then, it misses the mail, it is almost a catastrophe, and a lone copy which may have come by hand is read to tatters. As a seven day paper its influence will widen and its circulation increase.—Whiteville News Reporter.

The Wilmington Star has joined the ranks of the seven-days a week newspapers. It was bound to come. The News and Observer held back for a long while but finally realized the necessity of printing a paper every day in the year. The Star is a fine old paper, ably edited and strong in every respect. This puts the majority of the morning papers of the State in the every day class. As to the afternoon papers, The Newbern Sun pays The News this compliment: "When it comes to getting out an issue every day, including Sunday asd Monday, the morning papers of the State appear to 'have it on' the evening ones, but we afternoon guardians of the public weal are proud to be able to point to the Charlotte News as saving the situation for us by getting out a live sheet every day in the year—thus far, we believe, the only evening paper in the State that does it."—Charlotte News.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels will be the principal speaker at the coming Press Convention. From advance information regarding the programme, a big time is in store for all the boys who go to Wrightsville.—Charlotte News.

This from Theodore Partrick, of the Clinton Democrat: "Does ignorance of the tango prevent an appearance upon the ball floor at Lumina? Answer at once.—Anxious editor." For the benefit of Partrick, The Grit will state that he will not be debarred. However, when he hears Don Richardson's orchestra fresh from little old New York playing "He's a Devil," "I Love the Ladies," "This is the Life," and such kindred 'sole' stirrers, he will surely not be able to side-step at the one-step, or hesitate at the hesitation. Come in; the water is fine.—Siler City Grit.

Mr. W. B. Cooper, who was declared the Democratic nominee for State senator from this district at the convention in Wilmington last Saturday, will no doubt serve his constituency faithfully and to the best of his fine ability. His counsel in the upper House will be valuable to not only the district which he represents, but to the whole State. The News is of the opinion that Mr. Cooper is pretty good congressional timber. He is certainly as competent as the present incumbent, and we have a sneaking idea that he would make really a better congressman than the man now filling that place. Cooper, being an A1 business man, would go after something for his district, and if he didn't get it, he'd almost. Has Mr. Godwin ever made a noise in behalf of Southport? If he has, we want to be cited.—Southport News.

North Carolina needs the service of a statesman. We do not say North Carolina needs a statesman; that would be to assert that she has none. But the times demand the utmost service of a strong and brave man. There is wanted a man with the intellectual stature to command atention. There is wanted a statesman whose calm, strong voice can be heard above the puerile squabbling of faction. There is wanted a man impatient alike of the sordid greed and base ambition of the reactionary and the fretful clamor of the reckless apostle of innovations, a man with dignity to rebuke the demagogue of whatever pretensions. We need the service of a patriot who is able to lead the people out of confusion and fix their minds and their consciences upon essential things. There is wanted one who is able to drive the conviction home that there is no device of government, no scheme of legislation, that can take the place of simple honesty; that no material achievement, can supply its lack. What ability can a State claim, that is not able to devise a just and equitable system of taxation? What virtue can a State claim, that refuses to distribute justly amongst its citizens the burden of the support of government? What glory can the fabric of a State radiate through the world, unless its foundations are laid upon simple honesty?—Greensboro News (Ind.)

Through the generosity of the late Ashley Horne, a fitting memorial to the Women of the Confederacy was unveiled in Capitol Square Wednesday afternoon. The women have been referred to as the soldiers who fought at home. The most effective picture we ever beheld was of a woman standing by a window with a child, her hand shading her eyes as she strained to look through a storm that raged on the ocean. She was a fisherman's wife, and the painter spread on the canvas the fears and emotions of this woman as her husband's boat must have been tossed about on the sea. The fear that this woman was exposed to during a storm was the fear that every mother and wife in North Carolina must have felt during nearly four years of awful warfare. The men soldiers fought the enemy, but the women soldiers fought fear, and at a great disadvantage. They could not strike back. Their courage under these trying circumstances, however, was supreme, and the things they did for the soldiers in the army were altogether worthy of heroines. So when we look upon Mr. Lukeman's design in Capitol Square, we feel that it is very fitting that a gray-haired woman should be represented as telling a soldier's child of the stirring events of the years when the women of this country were martyrs.—Raleigh Times.

MEDICAL INSPECTION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

To be Conducted by United States Public Health Service.

Work Will Begin Next Monday—Will Be in Charge of Dr. C. W. Stiles, Who Will Have 16 Assistants —Letter to Parents

The medical inspection of the school children of Wilmington and New Hanover county, which was made for the first time last year by the experts of the United States Public Health Service, stationed at the Marine Hospital here, will be repeated this season, the work to begin next Monday. Dr. C. W. Stiles will be in charge of the work, and will be assisted by 16 other medical experts of the Public Health Service. It is planned to complete all the mental and physical examinations of the white children by October 1st.

The following letter, setting forth the facts about the examinations, and other details, is being sent to the heads of families in the city and county by Dr. Stiles.

"Last summer we made the physical examination of several hundred school children. Last winter the mental examinations of nearly all of the white school children were completed.

"There will be 17 medical men engaged upon the work this summer. Seven of us will be at work at the county schools and the other ten will be at the High School here in the city.

"We desire to complete, so far as possible, all of the physical examinations of the white children between June 15th and October 1st. The mental and the physical examinations of the colored children will be made next winter and summer.

"The physical examinations of the white city children will be made daily, except Sunday, beginning at 8:30 A. M., at the city High School.

"Parents are cordially invited to be present during the examination of their children, and we take the liberty of emphasizing the point that mothers, or some other lady relative should always be present when girls are examined.

"The physical examination this summer will consist of a general medical study of the child, with special emphasis upon the condition of the heart, lungs and blood.

"Parents are urged to call up the U. S. Marine Hospital by telephone (1068, ring 1) between 7 and 8 P. M. daily to make appointments for their children. In case appointment is not made beforehand, the parents and children are likely to be kept waiting several hours.

"After June 15th, appointment may also be made by calling at the High School in person, 8:30 A. M. till noon, daily except Sunday, or by calling on the telephone (No. 260) during the same hours.

"In a few cases of special exception, appointment may be made for examination on Sunday morning at the U. S. Marine Hospital. But as our work is very wearing on us and as we need our Sundays for rest, we would, however, urge parents not to ask for a Sunday examination unless they find it necessary.

"An agreement was made with the local Medical Society last year that in special cases, as when a child is ill, we would examine (upon request of the attending physician) sick children out of turn.

"In order to plan our work, it would be a great convenience for us to know as soon as possible how many children are to be examined and how many parents prefer not to take advantage of this medical inspection.

"This opportunity is utilized to repeat certain statements made last year, namely:

"First. The examination does not involve any fee, charge, or cost of any kind. We would not be permitted by the government to accept a fee, even were we so inclined.

"Second. We can not undertake the treatment of any cases, except those of boys who have parasitic infections. A limited number of this class of cases may enter the Marine Hospital free of charge.

"Third. We can not undertake to advise parents to place their children under the care of any particular general practitioner or specialist. Our suggestions as to seeking medical advice for treatment must be general.

"Fourth. All information gained by our studies is strictly confidential. We can not tell one parent what we have found during the examination of the children in some other family.

"Fifth. At the request of any parent, the results of our studies will be given to any physician designated by the parent.

"Sixth. Experience has shown that so many children voluntarily apply for examination, that we can not undertake to urge others, against their will, to come to us. The examination is free, the acceptance of the opportunity offered is optional.

"Seventh: We are so crowded with work with the school children of this city and county that we can not undertake to examine persons of other ages or children visiting Wilmington or the beach for the summer.

"Eighth. We are too busy to deny some of the absurd rumors that will inevitably be started from time to time in regard to our examination. If any person has misgivings as to our policy or method, we shall be glad to explain the point personally, but can not dignify absurd rumors by denying them in the newspapers.

"Respectfully,
"C. W. STILES, M. D.
"Professor in Charge."

FOR THE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Wilmington Newspaper Men and Chamber of Commerce Preparing for Entertainment

In preparation for the annual convention of the North Carolina Press Association at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, and the expected visit of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels in connection therewith, there were meetings yesterday of the Press Finance Committee and the Public Entertainment Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in the rooms of the Chamber, and of the general Press Executive Committee in the Star building on Chesnut street.

At each of these meetings final arrangements were made for the entertainment of the editors and their distinguished guests and it goes without saying that the convention this year will be one of the most successful in the history of the Association. At the Chamber of Commerce meeting, Mr. J. W. Jackson was called to the chair and Mr. Howard B. Branch acted as secretary. Practically all members of the two committees were present and after the object of the joint meeting had been stated by Mr. E. T. Taylor, chairman of the Public Entertainment Committee of the Chamber, there was a general discussion of the ways and means of entertaining and the work was so divided among the two committees as to ensure the best results at once. Present at the meeting were Chairman Taylor and Messrs. Jos. W. Yates and John R. Murchison, of the Chamber committee, and Messrs. J. W. Jackson, Z. W. Whitehead, Jos. W. Little, Ustace Norfleet and J. E. Thompson, of the Press Committee. Other members of the two committees have sent assurances of their thorough co-operation.

At the meeting of the Press Executive Committee, Mr. James H. Cowan, chairman, the official programme was formally announced and Mr. Cowan stated that he hoped to hear in a few days from President Clarence H. Poe as the itinerary of Mr. Daniels, the visit of the distinguished secretary in a public way being in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce. He will probably arrive on a morning train, be met at the station and taken on an automobile trip to the Sound where a special car will be awaiting to convey him to the beach where the same morning he will make his address to the press convention. He will be met by a committee of Wilmington's citizens at the city in time before leaving on the evening train to make some public address or greet the citizens generally at areception. However, all these arrangements are yet only tentative.

The editors will be welcomed formally to the beach and city by Hon. George Rountree, judge of the Superior Court, Wilmington's first citizen and not unknown already to the editors of Carolina. The programme of the meeting was published yesterday with the possible exception that on Thursday afternoon of the session, it is planned to meet the visitors over at Wrightsville Sound and carry them over the fine roads of New Hanover county in automobiles. On Friday there will be a side trip to Southport and Fort Caswell as the guests of the Chamber of Commerce of Southport, Mr. C. L. Stevens having reported at the meeting yesterday that all the plans for this splendid feature of entertainment had been perfected.

Chairman Cowan, of the Executive Committee, after conference with the committee yesterday announced his committees to have in charge the various features of entertainment as follows;

MR. ATKINSON STRICKEN.

Richmond Citizen Known Here Suffers Stroke of Paralysis.

The following from the Richmond Journal of Thursday, will be of interest here, Mr. Atkinson being a son of the late Col. J. Wilder Atkinson, for many years a prominent resident of this city, and a grandson of the late Bishop Thos. Atkinson, for whom he is named:

"Thomas Atkinson, prominent business man of Richmond, residing at 104 West Franklin street, was paralyzed in England last Monday, according to a cablegram received by a member of the family here.

"The message said the stroke affected the right side, but was not particularly severe. it was sufficient, however, to cause his family to feel much uneasiness for him.

"Mr. Atkinson is rather well advanced in years. He was on a pleasure tour in England when he was stricken."

COUNCILMAN JONES' REPORT

Covers Department of Public Safety for the Past Year—Filed With City Clerk.

The annual report of Councilman W. F. Jones, in charge of the department of public safety, has been completed and filed with Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, who furnished copies of the report to the press yesterday, with the approval of Mr. Jones.

The report in detail is as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., June 1st, 1914

"To the Hon. Mayor and Councilmen:

"City of Wilmington, N. C.,

"Gentlemen: As the annual reports of our fire and police chiefs carry all the data, other than financial matters, bearing upon the work done by the Department of Public Safety, of which I am Councilman in charge, for the year ending June 1st, my report can be limited to comment in a general way upon the results accomplished during the year. Having been under the continual and able management of Chief Chas. Schnibben for many years, the Fire Department has reached such a high standard of efficiency as to require only my general supervision, although each detail of management and improvement put into operation during the year has been done only after conference between Chief Schnibben and myself and conclusion reached as to the best methods to pursue in each instance. With some changes in the matter of wage scale, the installation of new equipment asked for by Chief Schnibben, the construction of a modern engine house at 5th and Castle Streets, and the addition of some other matters of less importance, our Fire Department will not be excelled, in point of equipment and efficiency of its members, by any department to be found in any City similarly situated as Wilmington. Right here, I desire to thank Chief Schnibben, all other officers, and men in the ranks of the department for the uniform courtesy shown me during our contact and personal dealings throughout the year. The fire department, from Chief to Sub-Fireman, is made up of as fine a force of men as can be found anywhere, and I feel that our citizens should feel a just pride in this branch of the municipal service, both as to equipment and the personel of its membership. Owing to the conditions existing at the time I became Councilman of Public Safety, it has been necessary for me to devote a great deal of time and personal attention to the police department, which I found badly disorganized and short in ranks to the extent of five or six men. This condition was not due to inefficiency of the men of this department, but has been due to lack of equipment, inability of those in charge to perfect organization, and to the ill-advised practice of appointing some individual as chief of the department every two years, merely to satisfy the political situation existing at the time and without reference to the practical ability of the man appointed to this important office. From the outset Chief Williams and myself determined to build up a police system that would do credit to any community, which we knew could be done with the excellent material of which the department was then composed. The first task was to perfect an organization and to relieve dissatisfaction and discontent existing in the ranks of the force. The next step was to acquire public confidence and to overcome attack made upon us by politicians of a particular element, sometimes though improperly, called "moralists." The attack made upon us by means of "sleuthing" our work with thoroughly irresponsible and untrustworthy hirelings would be a shame and discredit if done by densely ignorant persons and still more so when done by intelligent persons of standing in the community, whom we had a right to suppose were tolerant and in favor of fair dealing toward every one. The work of the police force has been so thorough and successful as to relieve these hirelings of anything to do other than to draw their salaries. At the present time, the police force is in excellent condition, complete harmony and loyalty to duty and to superiors being in evidence all along the line from the lowest men in rank to the active head of the department. During the past year, we have had police head-quarters put in splendid condition and the efficiency of the department has been greatly enhanced by the purchase and use of three traffic motorcycles and a first class police patrol wagon.

"Our police patrol motor-wagon would do credit to any City in the entire South. Other improvements have been increased salaries for the entire force, the proper and practical arrangement of the men on duty, and the use of more attractive and desirable uniforms for the entire membership of the department. The report of Chief Williams shows the actual work of the year, and I can supplement his comments upon the work done only with the remark that the success attained has been due entirely to the loyal support and work of each man on the force and to the practical knowledge and active management of Chief Williams and other officers of the department. I am under many obligations to the Chief and to every man on the force for their loyalty and the uniform courtesy shown me at all times throughout the year, and it is pleasant to add that by constantly associating and mingling with the entire force I have not only much pleasure, but have thereby gained practical information worth any man's while and consideration. I wish to conclude my comments with an expression of my thanks to the Mayor, each member of Council, and to the working forces of each department for courtesies and assistance extended me in discharging the duties of the department assigned to me by Council.

"There is a mistaken idea among citizens that I will here attempt to correct, namely, the general impression that this department, as well as other departments, expended a total sum of money last year much in excess of the amount provided in the budget. The fact is the police and fire departments did not expend a sum equal to the total amount provided in their budget, although small overdraws occured in several minor items of the budget.

"Another matter that requires more than passing consideration, and which should be brought to the attention of our representatives in the next session of the General Assembly, is the unequal and improper distribution of costs accruing in the Recorder's Court as between the City of Wilmington and New Hanover County. At least ninety five per cent of the costs collected in this court is derived from defendants which are brought before the court by the police department—ninety-nine per cent. would be nearer correct—besides the county gets the entire benefit of the road work done by City prisoners who are given road sentences. If I am not mistaken, the City gets one half of the net amount realized from cost expenses of that tribunal. To those citizens who entertain the delusion that law enforcement in Wilmington during the past year has been accomplished outside the police department, and that the latter deserves no credit for the splendid conditions now existing, I would suggest that they consult the criminal court dockets for facts leading to information as to where and by whom criminals have been brought before these courts for prosecution.

"Respectfully,
"W. F. Jones
"Councilman of Public Safety."

Children's Day Services Tomorrow.

Children's day will be observed at Immanuel Presbyterian church tomorrow morning. The exercises will begin at 10 o'clock, the regular hour for the Sunday school, and will extend into the regular 11 o'clock service when the pastor, Rev. J. S. Crowley, will make an address appropriate to the occasion. An interesting programme has been prepared by the children. At night at 8 o'clock there will be the usual preaching service, conducted by the pastor.

Hour to be Changed.

Beginning Monday, June 15th, the Recorder's court will be held each morning at 10 o'clock, instead of at noon, as has been the custom for the past several months. Of late the court has been running to lengthy sessions, and on account of beginning at noon, all whose business required their attendance at the court have been forced to miss their dinners with a most trying regularity. It is for this reason that the hour is to be changed.

Pepsi Cola gives you the most wholesome sort of brain refreshment, and body vigor. Each benefit which it brings is everlasting benefit, because Pepsi Cola is pure—healthful. Fruit, pepsin and stimulating oils, in it, quench thirst, aid digestion, relieve fatigue. Everybody likes its tart, rare flavor.

Pepsi Cola gives you what you want most on a hot, stifling, summer day. It's original. It's different. Keeps you happy and clear-headed for any work which you should do. It is safer to drink than water, for it is filtered, purified, tested and proved. Drink Pepsi Cola when your body wants refreshment. Ask yourself the question, "Am I thirsty now?"

The Next Regular Meeting of the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners

Application must be filed with the Secretary at least seven days prior to date of examination. For further necessary information and application blanks, address the Secretary.

CLUB HOUSE AT THE BEACH

Y. M. C. A. Members Decided in Favor of New Feature at Meeting Last Night—Building Secured.

It was definitely decided at a well attended meeting of the members of the Y. M. C. A., held in the association building on Market street last evening, to have a Y. M. C. A. club house at Wrightsville Beach this summer, the sentiment of those present being unanimously in favor of this new and attractive feature of the association activities.

Arrangements have already been made to secure a splendid building for the club house, and the organization meeting will be held Monday evening, at which time officers and committees of the club will be elected.

The cottage which has been secured was originally built for a fishing club. It is located on the Hammocks, and is owned by the Tidewater Power Company. The building contains five large rooms and a kitchenette, with a wide sleeping porch, and ample space under the cottage for storing rowboats, canoes, etc. It is equipped with electric lights, shower bath, etc., and it is as near an ideal structure for the purpose of a Y. M. C. A. club house as would be possible to find.

At the meeting last night it was decided to have two forms of membership, full and limited. There will be only 35 full memberships, and 19 members of the association have already signed up as charter full members of the beach club. The limited memberships will not be limited to any fixed number.

The full memberships will inculde all house privileges, sleeping privileges, lockers for fishing tackle, clothing, etc., and the use of the kitchenette.

The limited memberships will entitle members to the house privileges, bath privileges, etc., but not to sleeping privileges and the use of the kitchenette.

The club will be operated strictly for the members of the Y. M. C. A., and will be in charge of one of the officers of the Wilmington association. It is expected to prove exceedingly popular with the association members, and to be a success from the first season. The Mobile Y. M. C. A. has a beach club, operated in connection with the city association, and it has proved one of the most delightful features of that strong association's many activities.

Very little will have to be done to the building in the way of getting it in shape for the use of the club, and steps will be taken at once to do what little work is necessary. It is planned to open the club house immediately following the organization meeting Monday evening.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

TATUM-DeBERRY WEDDING IN TARBORO JUNE 17.

Tarboro, N. C., June 11.—The most important event on the social calendar for this city, and the one to which local people are looking forward with much interest is the wedding of Miss Olivia DeBerry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. DeBerry, to Mr. Benjamin Tatum, of Greensboro, here on the evening of Wednesday the 17th, at 9 o'clock at the St. James Methodist church. Already Miss DeBerry has been the recipient of several charming social functions and several others are being planned by her many friends for immediately before the ceremony. Attending the wedding will be numerous young people prominent in the social affairs of the State and the wedding promises to be one of the most brilliant affairs in Eastern North Carolina.

FORBES-WEAVER WEDDING AT GREENVILLE THURSDAY.

Greenville, N. C., June 12.—A quiet but pretty marriage was solemnized yesterday morning at 7:45 at the home of Mr. L. M. Savage, on Dickinson avenue, when Miss Lucye Bynum Forbes, daughter of Mr. A. A. Forbes, became the bride of Mr. Frank D. Weaver, of Wilmington. The ceremony was very impressively performed by Rev. J. J. Walker, the pretty ring ceremony being used.

On account of the recent death of the bride's mother, the ceremony was very simple and attended only by the immediate family and a few close friends. The bridal party entered to a beautiful rendition of "All For You" by Miss Mavis Belle Evans, followed by Mendelsshon's Wedding March, played by Miss Hilda Critcher.

Miss Arlen Joyner and Miss Gertrude Critcher were maids of honor, and little Miss Annie Lynn Savage was ring bearer. The house was artistically and beautifully decorated with ferns and potted plants

Both the bride and groom are well known throughout Eastern North Carolina, and their popularity was attested by a beautiful and costly display of wedding gifts, several large tables being used for the beautiful display at the home of Mr. Savage. Mr. Weaver is one of the most popular Atlantic Coast Line conductors with headquarters in Wilmington, and Miss Forbes is one of the most accomplished and popular of Greensville's young ladies.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left on the Atlantic Coast Line train for an extended wedding tour to New York, Washington, Niagara Falls and points in Canada. They will return about July 1, and will make their home in Wilmington.

NEGRO DROWNED AT FOOT OF NIXON STREET YESTERDAY.

Robert McCormick Loses Life in Waters of Cape Fear.

Leaping into the river to dodge a swinging piling, Robert McCormick, colored, an employe of the Wilmington Iron Works, was drowned in the Cape Fear at the foot of Nixon street, near the new Covington warehouse at Hilton, yesterday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock. His body was recovered by companions within a half hour.

With a number of others, McCormick was engaged in pulling up some old pilings from the river. McCormick was in a small boat alone, his task being to attach the chain around the pilings to be pulled up by the hoister.

According to the story related to a Star representative by one of McCormick's companions and an eye witness, a piling when pulled up, became overbalanced, swung out toward McCormick's boat, and the negro becoming frightened, jumped overboard. He came up only one time, and did not appear to struggle then. Poles, boxes and other objects were thrown to him by his companions, but so far as could be observed he made no effort to save himself, and when he went down the second time he did not come to the surface again.

His companions are of the opinion that he must have struck a log or some other obstruction when he dived overboard, and stunned himself, as it was known that he was able to swim.

His companions immediately began a search for the body, and with the aid of a pike pole it was recovered in about 30 minutes. Efforts to resuscitate the man failed.

McCormick was 23 years of age, married and the father of one child. His family lives at Rowland, N. C., and the remains will be taken to that place on the early train this morning.

VERA CRUZ NEEDS MORE FOOD SUPPLIES.

Secretary Redfield Wires Wilmington Chamber of Commerce to Help.

The food supply problem at Vera Cruz, Mexico, is becoming a serious problem, according to a telegram received here by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce Thursday night. Prices for staples such as potatoes, corn, beans, canned goods, hams, bacon, etc., are almost prohibitive and it is imperative that American dealers ship supplies at once, he states. It is presumed here that the telegram was sent to all other Atlantic ports.

The telegram received here is as follows:

"American consul Vera Cruz wires June 10th: 'Food supply problem here rapidly becoming serious. Prices for staples almost prohibitive. For example potatoes are now selling 30 cents gold per pound. Other articles in proportion. Respectfully suggest arrangements be made send Vera Cruz large quantities of corn, beans, potatoes, canned goods, hams, bacon, etc., to be sold at normal prices. Also suggest all foodstuffs for consumption Vera Cruz be allowed to enter duty free. Communicate especially direct leading dealers. State department advises foodstuffs for consumption Vera Cruz will be free duty. Have wired consul Vera Cruz for names responsible parties there. Will furnish as soon as received. Advise me difficulties found, if any.

PINE ASSOCIATION WILL MEET AT WRIGHTSVILLE.

July Meeting of North Carolina Pine Association to be Held on 16th.

Wrightsville Beach captures another of the big State and inter-State conventions to be held during the summer, the North Carolina Pine Association at its meeting in Norfolk Thursday night having decided on Carolina's favorite resort for its convention meet on July 16th.

Mr. Z. W. Whitehead returned to the city yesterday morning from the Norfolk meeting and says the lumbermen are looking forward with pleasurable interest to their meeting here. There are about 150 members of the association and while the meeting is but for one day, it is one of the most influential of the State and inter-State meetings held each season. Capt. Nathan O'Berry, of Goldsboro, is president of the association and presided at Norfolk for his first session.

Mr. R. A. Parsley also attended the meeting in Norfolk and returned yesterday.

Subscription lists to new stock in the Orton Building and Loan Association is still open. Make reservations today. Office James & James, Inc., Southern Building. Thos. E. Cooper, president; W. G. James, secretary and treasurer.—advertisement.

Miss Ruby Barrett, of Atlanta, Ga., was among the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Green, of Birmingham, Ala., are spending a few days at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dill and Mrs. L. M. Ansley, of Cola, S. C., arrived yesterday to spend a few days at the Seashore Hotel.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Miss Jean Pemberton left today for Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach, to spend some time, a guest of Miss Jennie Murchison."

Yesterday's Fayetteville Observer: "Mrs. Eva Dodson and daughter, Miss Helen, and Miss Irene Allen went down to Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon, and will occupy a cottage there during the summer."

The extension of the trolley line to Seaforth, the new development at the beach, has been completed and is in readiness for the operation of cars. The track was completed several weeks ago and the installation of the poles and trolley wires was finished this week.

The high temperatures now prevailing in the inland cities is a sharp contrast to the cool breezes at the beach and many are planning to come to Wrightsville for recreation and rest. There were quite a number of arrivals yesterday and others are expected today.

The first of the season's convenient week, when the South Carolina will meet in annual convention, June 16th, 17th and 18th. It is expected that the meeting will bring to the beach 125 or more members of the Association, some of whom will be accompanied by members of their families.

The outside fishing is not claiming all the attention of the anglers just now, and surf fishing continues its popularity. Thursday afternoon two fine drum were landed at Masonboro Inlet, and the same night two more were beached by Wilmington anglers in the slue between Moore's Inlet and the Oceanic Hotel. The fish averaged in the neighborhood of 20 pounds each.

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were R. F. Jackson, Baltimore; A. L. Yerkes, Birmingham, Ala.; C. L. Smith, Charlotte; J. P. Caldwell, Hallsboro; L. Brodstein, Atlanta; R. J. Rhame, Sumter, S. C.; E. C. and Julian Carpenter, Monroe; L. Speigler, Birmingham; J. J. Springer, St. Augustine, Fla.; C. H. Thomas, Atlanta.

Messrs. W. C. Carrington, of Spartanburg, S. C.; J. M. Reeves, of Atlanta; S. L. Yerkes, of Birmingham, Ala.; and A. G. Latimer, of Milledgeville, Ga., were members of a fishing party that went out in the sail boat, Virgie May, yesterday. They had good luck and brought in 140 good sized fish. They are all veteran fishermen and know the angling art from A to Z.

Exhibitions in the modern dances, Miss Chandler and Mr. West were again an attraction at Lumina last night. The dances demonstrated last night were a tango and a hesitation waltz. Tonight these dancers will give exhibitions in another style of tango and the matchiche. These exhibitions have proved to be a very attractive feature of the Lumina dances. The week-end dance takes place at Lumina tonight and a large attendance is expected.

OPEN STORE TODAY.

C. D. Kenny Co., Coffee and Tea Merchants, Have Branch Here.

C. D. Kenny Co., coffee roasters and extensive handlers of teas, sugars, rice and baking powder, will open their branch store at No. 16 South Front street today. This concern has stores all over the United States and this will make its 80th branch. They have the reputation of being the largest sugar buyers in the United States. It is thought that they will likely make this a distributing point for the products they handle, the location of the port being an advantageous one for shipping them here in vessels. However, no statement to this effect has been made by the managers of the company.

The store building in which they will be located is the one formerly occupied by Mr. Charles Finkelstein, the pawnbroker. It has been repainted and remodeled, and neatly furnished throughout.

What You Cannot See

THERE are many things about a suit that you cannot see—their presence or absence is only manifest after long wear.

Those things you assume to be in your clothes if you buy them of a reputable house.

You are safe in dealing with a firm that has a reputation for Quality Merchandise, for such a reputation takes a long time to build and is a very precious asset and, like most precious things, is easily destroyed.

We have spent years of time and thousands of dollars in building our business reputation as Value Givers in Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods.

And because we know that the slightest misstatement would bring that reputation down like a house of cards, you may rest assured that when we say our David-Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes, our Hats, our Haberdashery offer the greatest values in Wilmington, at their prices, we say it advisedly and only after careful investigation.

So if you want the best clothes your money can buy at $25 or LESS, or if value in Hats or Furnishings means anything to you, come to DAVID'S.

COTTON MARKET NERVOUS

Fluctuations Irregular—Sharp Early Break Followed By Sharper Rally

New York, June 12.—The cotton market was nervous and unsettled today fluctuations were irregular. Quite a sharp early break was followed by an even sharper rally, but the market weakened again in the late trading when the confidence of recent buyers seemed to be shaken somewhat by reports of bank failures in Chicago and private wires reporting rains at two or three points in Alabama. The close was steady but at nearly the lowest point of the day and five to eleven points under the final figures of Thursday.

Disappointing Liverpool cables and liquidation of July contracts by Wall street and Wester interests appeared responsible for the early decline.

The market opened at a loss of 4to 7 points and old crop months sold 11 points net lower during the early trading. The weakness of July seemed to promote some scattering liquidation of new crop deliveries and the late months sold about 7 to 8 points net lower. A few July stop orders were executed on the break, but the contracts were taken at a premium over August, and as soon as the July selling became less active, the general list rallied. Demand was stimulated during the middle of the day by the detailed weather reports showing very little precipitation and maximun temperture of 100 points or more at many points east of the river, and local traders who had sold on the early decline seemed to be covering. This buying sent old crop positions about four points, and the new crop about 8 to 10 points net higher. Increased realizing was encountered around these figures and the selling became rather active and general late in the afternoon, on the unsettling news from Chicago or the talk of improving weather in the Eastern belt.

Cotton futures closed steady.

CONDITIONS FAVOR LONGS

Stock Operations on Same Restricted Scale as Heretofore—Market Moves Upward.

New York, June 12.—Speculative conditions today favored traders on the long side of the stock market. Operations were on the same restricted scale as heretofore, but in spite of slackness of demand the market moved upward. Quiet strength was apparent in almost every quarter. A few shares, such as the Harrimans, Steel and Canadian Pacific moved up a point or more. The average change, however, was small and even the moderate gains at the day's high prices were cut down when the list eased off in the closing hour.

The street was as indifferent as ever to the extraordinarily rapid movement of gold out of the country. The amount engaged today was $2,000,000, bringing up the week's total to nearly $20,000,000.

Exchange rates continued to rise. Demand sterling made another high record since 1907 at 4.8910. Money rates held firm with higher quotations for long time loans.

In the bond market there was unusual activity in several issues, which commonly do not figure extensively in the dealings, such as Lake Shore debentures, and St. Louis & San Francisco refunding fours. Prices in the main were well sustained.

Total sales, par value, $2,597,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Market Has Been Less Active During Week and Fluctuations Were Irregular.

New York, June 12.—The cotton market has been less active during the past week, and fluctuations have been irregular, but since the reaction of some 40 to 50 points from the recent high level, prices nave worked higher on a moderate trade demand, renewed bull support. December contracts sold at 12.98 today, or about 50 points above the low level reached on the break of last Monday and within 12 points of the high record for the season.

Improving weather and crop accounts from the western belt have encouraged selling, but there has been little or no indication of Southern offerings here against prospective crops, and, as the scattering long interest accumulated last month had been materially reduced on the break of the previous week, there was not much pressure against the market. At any rate, contracts were readily absorbed, and toward the end of the week the trade showed increasing nervousness over new crop prospects east of the river, owing to continued dry weather in most sections and reports of extremely high temperatures. Aside from immediately prevailing crop conditions, bullishly disposed operators continue to emphasize the unfavorable start as reflected in the initial condition figures and some think there has been buying on the fear of unfavorable weather later in the season and a generally bullish view of requirements as on any particular item in the week's news. In some circles there is a disposition to compare eastern belt prospects with the bumper crop year of 1911 as May andJune weather conditions to date have been somewhat similar, but the recent government report showed a very much less favorable start in the eastern belt States than at the corresponding date three years ago, and unfavorable private reports from this section have been more numerous, while there have also been some reports of acreage abandonment or heavy damage to a sappy plant from west of the river.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

New York, June 12.—Dun's review will say tomorrow:

"Official promise of another prosperous year on the farms tends to strengthen the general business outlook. The government grain report this week made a splendid exhibit and in the case of wheat assurance is given for the greatest yield the country has ever raised.

"With the increased wealth derived from the soil the purchasing power of the agricultural community will be enhanced, an enlarged railroad freight traffic is indicated by the bountiful harvests and since funds here are in abundant supply no difficulty is found in financing the marketing of crops.

"In regard to the monetary situation much significance has been attached to recent development; gold is still being withdrawn from this country in substantial volume without exerting any material effect upon rates for accommodation.

"Absence of uniformity continues to characterize trade advices, but considered in a broad sense favorable reports predominate.

"Failures this week are 294 against 759 last year; failures in Canada 37 against 39 last year."

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

THEATRICAL

While the Grand has made every Saturday a rouser, the offering for to-day is going to far exceed anything here-to-fore presented in Wilmington in the way of moving pictures. Four big films will make up the menu to-day and one of these will be a 2-part special release. The latter is the latest and most brilliant novelty of the Pathe company, "The Tango Craze", and the very name is something to conjure with and draw folks. A disciple of the tango falls asleep and has a most wondrous dream, in which the tangoists, the hesitation artists, the maxixe exponents and other stars of the modern dances are all jumbled up and present one of the greastest spectacles ever flashed on a moving picture screen. It is a film of the very second joy-riding in true time to the present craze and the chap who misses it is going to go shy something big. The Vitagraph also has a masterly offering on to-day in "The Little Madonna". It is a gripping story of fascinating Italian life, with all of its thrills and daring adventures. Plenty of fun to-day, too, at the charming Grand. The Biograph's "A Man in the House" is a yell of glee all the way through, while "The Tango Flat" is a fun producer of the very finest type.

Today At The Bijou

No, there's no let up even in sight to the big features which the popular photoplay house have in store for its thousands of patrons. Every day brings its new surprise in a brand new, big, out of the ordinary offering, to the Bijou.

Today, it is a big Powers two-real drama, "The Last of Their Race". This play, remarkable for its series of gun fights, is laid in the mountains of Kentucky during that period when the feudal system held forth, and when many of the mountaineers braved the United States law to follow the moonshine trade. Cleo Madison, the little Powers leading lady, who has made such a wonderful reputation for herself since joining the Universal, appears in the leading role, supported by a cast of eight of the biggest stars on the Universal lists, who take leading parts in the big play. It's a story of the disaster that attended a family fued, one that will make you grip your chair as the tense situations develop and then unfold as only a master hand can do it.

"The Second Clue" is the second big drama on to-day's bill, and will be found one of the biggest single reel subjects you have seen lately. It's a story abounding in interesting situations and climaxes, and will be followed closely throughout by everyone.

Animated Weekly No. 116 will contain something of interest to every one who sees it to-day. The Vaterland, largest of the floating cities comes first followed by Veterans' March in Atlanta, Royalty at the Races, Norwegian Pageant, Huerta's Representatives at Niagara Falls, Cornell Crew races, England's New Ship, Theodore Roosevelt, Lincoln Beachey and Barney Oldfield meeting, also the usual cartoons by the famous Hy Mayer.

The Day of Fake Advertising is Passing

As a matter of self-protection, as well as protection of the public, we are downright glad to see the dawn of honest advertising.

The store that has honest merchandise at right prices need not hesitate to tell the truth.

For Example, we never had the least difficulty in advertising Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes for men. They contain so much that is superaltively good that the plain truth about them is the simplest kind of a story.

But after all they tell their own story better than cold type can tell it. If you, Mr. Man, are not familiar with that story and the clothes that tell it, don't you wait another day to hear it.

Incidentally, the Spring and Summer showing of Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes is ready. To be found here exclusively.
